

About us

Our office is specializing in providing religious counselling, social and cultural services.

The office is officially registered at the register of the Swedish companies and has a governmental tax file.

The office headquarter is located in the capital city; Stockholm, its services covering the whole Sweden.

The office is managed by Sheikh Abdul Karim Laallam, who is an academic and a specialist researcher in the Islamic sciences and sociology.

The office has currently cooperation contracts with a number of imams and specialist clerics as well as other specialists in the field of law and lawyers, psychology and sociology, official translation offices, private and governmental bodies.

Language English

-  Svenska
-  العربية

Islamiska Konsultbyrå - iskb.se